

Mental health and substance abuse benefits

Behavioral health benefits provide confidential support, information, treatment, and resources to address stressful or challenging situations, depression or other mental illness, or substance abuse. And these benefits are available through Optum® to anyone covered by your ConnectiCare plan, even dependents living away from home.

Use the online provider search on liveandworkwell.com to find counselors, psychiatrists, social workers, and more than 3,500 treatment facilities nationwide.

How to get help

Visit liveandworkwell.com.

Search for a clinician, schedule a virtual visit with a clinician, review your claims for services, or submit claims. The website also features information and resources to help enhance your work, health, and life. Register with your ConnectiCare member ID number or use the site as a guest (access code: ConnectiCare).

Call 888-946-4658 (TTY: 711).

You can reach out 24 hours a day, and it's confidential. Someone can help explain your options.

Virtual visits are available, too.

You can use liveandworkwell.com to search for a therapist and schedule online sessions using your mobile device or computer. Get confidential help without leaving home. Your plan's copayments, deductibles, and/or coinsurance apply.

How much will this cost?

Your benefit summary describes your share of costs for mental health or substance abuse office visits. Services may require preauthorization (or approval before they will be covered) and/or a copayment. Your plan may also have a deductible. Use the many features of liveandworkwell.com without paying any added cost.
